NOTICE: To the people of Anacostia only. You will find J. T. Fowler's advertisement numbered from 1 to 400. If you will call at the store between the hours of 4 and 6 Saturday afternoon with advertisement in hand you may win the useful articles displayed in the window.

A number will be placed in the window and if the number corresponds with yours YOU WIN. If not the number nearest will win.

The numbers must be presented in person and only one number will be recognized.

A Labor Day Program

Mr. R. F. Bradbury is planning a very unique treat in the way of a Watermelon Feast to be held Monday at Bradbury Heights. There will also be a base ball game and other sports. We hope that a great number may have the privilege of spending a day of enjoyment at that beautiful new subdivision overlooking the National Capital.

Carriages and Automobiles will be at the disposal of the public all day at the corner of Penna. and Minnesota Avenues, S. E.

Are we going? Of course we are!

ANACOSTIA

Gonzello A. Noell of Porto Rico is visiting William Downey, who resides on U street. Mr. Noell is studying for the priesthood in this country at St. Mary's College in Baltimore and St. Bernard's Seminary at Rochester, N. Y. He will resume his studies after he returns.

Miss Irene Davenport left last Monday for Utah, where she will take up missionary work. Miss Davenport is the daughter of Rev. W. G. Davenport of Emmanuel Church. She recently completed her studies and is now a deaconess in the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Ryon and daughter of Nichols Avenue, are visiting at Herndon, Va.

It is rumored that Mr. Geo. Frederick who has been for many years clerk for Mr. Louis Smith the dry goods dealer, was married at Rockville, Md. at high noon, Thursday, Sept. 2.

Sargeant Stevens, the popular policeman of this section who has been at Atlantic City for his health is again well enough to be on duty. His friends rejoice with him.
